

Split-T Management's Raquel Miller wins WBA Interim Super Welterweight Championship

NEW YORK (November 26, 2019)—Saturday night in Quebec City, Split-T Management's Raquel Miller captured the WBA Interim Super Welterweight world championship with a 10-round unanimous decision over Alma Ibarra.

Miller of San Francisco controlled the action and kept the previously undefeated Ibarra at bay and won by scores of 99-91 and 98-92 twice.

With the win, the fighter known as "Pretty Beast" raises her perfect mark to 10-0.

Miller could now look towards bouts with WBA World champion Hanna Gabriels as well as Hannah Rankin and former super middleweight champion Maricela Cornejo.

□□

"It was a good fight. Alma was tough, and it was a good fight. I fought well, now I will look at the fight, and see what I could have done better. I was dominant as I won most of the rounds. I took this fight at the last minute, so I am happy with the fight and the result," said Miller.

"I want to thank everyone who has and does support me. There is more to come. I just want to tell everyone that they can push for their dreams and don't take no as an answer."

Miller is promoted by DiBella Entertainment.

To Follow Raquel Miller on Social Media, click the following logos:

