It was also last year’s Inaugural “Box Fan Expo Invitational 2018” where we had several number one and top seeded USA amateur boxers compete against the best in their division and more importantly in front of boxing fans that attended the Expo as well as family and friends. Those invited to compete had a chance to also get noticed by top boxing companies and industry people that were present that day during the event. The Box Fan Expo Invitational was delighted to be sponsored by Mayweather Promotions and adidas Boxing.

The Box Fan Expo Invitational also had an opportunity to collaborate and help the Fernando Vargas Fighting Foundation, a non-profit organization dedicated to providing youth with a constructive alternative to self-defeating behavior through athletic, academics and community service programs. Their programs include role model mentors and a “giving inner city kids a fighting chance” philosophy that impacts an average of 400 kids a year.

Ward battled back from an early knockdown to take over the bout and win a unanimous decision victory and hand Kovalev his first professional defeat. Fans and pundits alike clamored for a rematch and Ward granted their wish. The two met a second time on June 17, 2017 at Mandalay Bay to once again settle the score and Ward ensured that all questions were answered with a definitive eight round TKO to retain his light heavyweight titles.
