

MSG NETWORK TO AIR SELDIN-GANOY SEPT. 10TH

Joe DeGuardia's Star Boxing is proud to announce that this Thursday, September 10 at 8pm, the #1 Regional Sports Network in the country, MSG Network will air a tape delayed broadcast of fast rising undefeated Jr. Welterweight contender Cletus "The Hebrew Hammer" Seldin. Seldin, Rated #9 in the World by the WBC is considered one of the hardest pure punchers in boxing. The broadcast features him against one of his toughest opponents, Ranee Ganoy. The Bout took place at The Paramount in Huntington, NY.

Seldin, 16-0 13KO's, Shirley, NY, defended his WBC Jr International Silver Jr. Welterweight title against the hard punching Philippine native Ranee Ganoy, 38-12-2 32 K0's.

Seldin who is quickly becoming a fan favorite because of his aggressive, all out style, took a big step up in class when he met Ganoy, who is the former IBF Pan Pacific Lightweight Champion. It was an exciting battle between two hard punching fighters with the up and coming Seldin putting it on the line against the upset minded Ganoy.

Also scheduled to appear on the broadcast will be undefeated Queens native Danny Gonzalez, 8-0-1 3K0 who took on hard hitting Carl McNickles, 8-8 6K0, Chicago, IL, in a 6 round Jr. Welterweight bout, and undefeated Huntington, NY Featherweight Johnny Hernandez, 4-0 1K0 battling it out with Puerto Rico's Angel Suarez, 2-2 1K0.

Star Boxing's Joe DeGuardia had this to say about the fight being telecast on MSG: "We are delighted once again to have MSG Network broadcast another exciting event from the Paramount in Huntington, NY. These fights are action packed and will have you on the edge of your seats. Cletus Seldin is one of the most exciting, hard punching fighters in the world today".
