

GH3 Promotions Lopez, Foster, Odom and Frometa shine this past Friday night in Atlantic City

Nutley, NJ (February 24, 2016) – This past Friday night at Historic Boardwalk Hall in Atlantic City four members of the GH3 Promotional banner, put on great performances and three of those were televised live on ShoBox: The New Generation that was seen on SHOWTIME®.

In the main event, Super Bantamweight, Adam Lopez (15-0) remained undefeated as he scored an emphatic unanimous decision Mario Munoz to retain the WBA Fedlatin title.

Jerry Odom (13-2-1) continued to establish himself as one of the most exciting fighters in the super middleweight division with a 8-round draw with previously unblemished Ronald Ellis.

Lightweight O'Shaquie Foster (10-1, 7 K0's) scored a beatdown over previously undefeated Lavisas Williams by scoring a 7th round stoppage in an scheduled 8-round bout.

In a non-televised bout, welterweight Hector Frometa (2-0) went to 2-0 with a 4-round unanimous decision over Jordan Rosario.

"We are very proud of our fighters that fought on Friday night," said GH3 Promotions CEO Vito Mielnicki.

"Adam put on a very solid performance against a tough fighter from Mexico. He is a couple fights away from fighting for a world title. We feel when that time comes, he will not only be competitive but he has the talent to win a title and be a player for many years to come."

“As for Jerry Odom, he fought a great fight and it was very close. Once again his fight was filled with action and he earned another opportunity to compete against anybody at 168 pounds. He shows the heart of a fighter and doesn’t turn down anybody. He will be back in another good fight in the next couple months.”

“O’Shaquie showed everyone that his fight in November was just a bad night. He has a ton of ability and he put on a great performance. He is back on track and we still envision huge things for him.”

“Frometa is a prospect that has great natural ability and he will be stepping up the opposition with each fight. He comes from the Cuban amateur system, and he fits into what GH3 Promotions is about and that is developing fighters and have them prepared to fight big fights when the are ready.”

GH3 Promotions signs Cuban amateur standout Hector Frometa to promotional contract

Nutley, New Jersey (October 20, 2015) – Vito Mielnicki's GH3 Promotions is pleased to announce the signing of Welterweight Hector Frometa to an exclusive promotional contract.

Frometa of Cuba had an outstanding amateur career as he amassed a record of 195-22 for the most distinguished amateur program in the world.

He has traveled the world and has won many amateur tournaments.

"We are excited to add Hector to our stable," said GH3 Promotions president, Vito Mielnicki. "He comes from the great Cuban amateur system and with that pedigree and his hunger to be great, we feel we have added another top prospect to the company."

"I am very blessed and happy to be with GH3 Promotions. I am very thankful and I am 150% focused in becoming a world champion," said Frometa.

Frometa has been called a good boxer who is aggressive.

Frometa will make his pro debut on November 6th on the off-tv portion of a ShoBox: The New Generation show in Las Vegas.

"I am so happy that my first fight will be in Las Vegas. I will be able to show my skills in front of the best boxing people in the world.”

The 2-time Cuban National champion has been in the United States for three months and excited to be in his adopted home of Miami.

“It was tough in Cuba. It was hard to live there. I had to fight like a dog just to get to the United States. I will make the most of this great opportunity. I consider myself a real student of boxing as I eat, drink and sleep the sport.”

“I just want to say that a storm is coming. I plan to take over the 147-pound division and show why Cuban boxers are the best,” finished the 24 year-old Frometa.
