

Anthony “Juice” Young takes on Rogelio Casarez in headline bout on Saturday, March 11th at the Claridge Hotel in Atlantic City

Atlantic City, NJ (February 14, 2017)–Anthony “Juice” Young will take on Rogelio Casarez in a welterweight bout scheduled for 8-rounds that will headline a big night of boxing on Saturday, March 11th at The Claridge Hotel in Atlantic City.

This will be the 7th card promoted at the Claridge by Rising Promotions.

Young of Atlantic City has a record of 15-2 with six knockouts.

The 29 year-old Young turned professional in 2011, and won his first ten bouts, which was highlighted by a win over Jose Javier Calderon (4-1-1).

After suffering his 1st loss, Young has won five of his last six, including four straight. In his last bout, Young won a six-round unanimous decision over James Robinson on January 20th in Atlantic City.

This will be Young’s 9th appearance in Atlantic City.

“I don’t know too much about my opponent, but I will be ready for him. I do know that he has a good record and is moving up in weight,”said Young. “It’s always good to fight at home in Atlantic City. I get to sleep in my bed, and get to fight in front of my hometown fans.”

Casarez of Batesville, Arkansas has a record of 13-5 with 5 knockouts.

The 26 year-old is a five year-professional. On July 9, 2016, Casarez traveled all the way to Chengdu, China, and won a 12-round unanimous decision and upset the previously undefeated Ronnakit Boontree (8-0) to capture the NABF Junior Lightweight title.

On October 29, he defended that title with 12-round unanimous decision over Blake Franklin in Batesville, Arkansas.

"I watched some tape of Young, and he is fast and moves well," said Casarez. "I know that I am stronger, and will bring pressure to him. I feel confident after the win in China. That fight gave me good experience and it taught me that I just need to be in 100% condition to win fights, and it really does not matter where I fight."

In the 6-round co-feature, Gabriel Pham (7-1, 3 K0's) of Atlantic City will take on Edgar Perez (7-19, 3 K0's) of Chicago in a super middleweight bout.

Also in 6-round bouts:

Yurik Mamedov (4-0, 2 K0's) of Brooklyn, NY will fight Rafael Montalvo (3-5, 3 K0's) of St. Clair, PA in a welterweight bout.

John Magda (11-1, 7 K0's) of Rutherford, NJ will take on Wesley Maldonado (8-2, 7 K0's) of Arecibo, Puerto Rico in a light heavyweight bout.

Dan Pasciolla (8-2) of Brick, NJ will take on LeMarcus Tucker (4-1, 2 K0's) of Forrest City, Arkansas in a heavyweight bout.

In 4-round bouts:

Brendon Barrett (4-0-2, 4 K0's) of Little Egg Harbor, NJ will take on Brian Donahue (3-13-3) in a heavyweight bout.

LeRoy Davila (5-0, 3 KO's) of New Brunswick, NJ will take on an opponent to be named in a bantamweight bout.

Here's what the fighters said Thursday:

ADAM LOPEZ

"This is my third time on ShoBox and my third fight against an undefeated fighter. They like to match me tough but I must confess, I'm really looking forward to it.

"I know I only had 14 fights, but I truly feel I feel I'm ready for a major fight or a title shot at the end of year. I have a strong amateur background, so I have experience. There are a lot of good fights right now at 122 pounds. The division is hot.

"I fought at 118 last time so I can make that weight if the right opportunity comes, but I am strong at 122. I thought I clearly won my last fight. I don't think it was as close as the judges said it was.

"I'm fighting a guy, Munoz, who is sort of a mystery to me. I've seen one tape of him, but it was from 2012. So I don't really know how he's fought recently.

"He seems to want to box and slug. He's had some good performances in the past and fought some good ones so I won't take nothing away from him and I do respect him.

"But I'm prepared to make the fight and be aggressor if necessary, and to win it any way that I have to. My trainer [former two-time world champion Carlos "Famous" Hernandez] continues to work on all the little things, and trains me for anything that might come my way..

"I feel that I've moved from prospect to contender, but a victory tomorrow night should prove that to everybody."

MARIO MUÑOZ

"This is my first fight in nine months and first in America, which is very exciting. You have to fight in the United States eventually; this is where you become known.

"I know that I'm in top shape. I've fought some good guys in my division, and I'm at the level I need to be. I had a really hard training camp; I know what I'm supposed to do.

"I'm grateful for this opportunity. I know a lot of people haven't heard of me, but I promise you a good fight.

"I'm more of a boxer than a puncher, but I love to exchange and switch stance to southpaw, although my trainer doesn't like it.

"Lopez is very fast, smart and has a great left hand. But I'm ready for all that. I'll look at what he has to offer and counter with my best.

"I'm a little nervous. Things are moving fast now. But I couldn't be more ready."

RONALD ELLIS

"I've been working for this sort of opportunity since I was 13, so, yes, I am very excited. I want to win and look good doing it so promoters and television will want to see me again.

"I've had problems in the past getting opponents, so I've taken a few 'stay busy' fights. But this fight is a totally different story.

"Everyone says I'm a boxer-puncher, and I do feel I am versatile. I'll decide how I want to go the night of the fight. We know how Jerry's gonna fight so I need to fight him smart. We'll see how Odom's chin is because it's going get tested tomorrow night.

"I only had 24 amateur fights, but I am dedicated and continuing to improve with each fight. It will be a great night for me. I'm looking forward to putting on a good show."

JERRY ODOM

"Everybody has to make changes so I have a new trainer, Kennie Johnson, for this fight. He has been trying to stress finesse, movement and utilizing my overall skills more, with less emphasis on just trying to load up and knock the guy out.

"We're working on me picking shots, breaking down opponents and setting up the power shots rather than just show it. Defensively, he's had me working on my overall movement, head movement in particular.

"I'm looking to shine on Friday, especially after my last ShoBox fight that I lost. I should have never taken the fight once he came in so overweight. It was a bad business decision on my part, but I learned – no more thinking with my heart.

"I got over my last fight right away and I'm anxious to do my job and show how much I gained and learned from it. I certainly feel ready. My only focus is to win.

"Ellis should be a good opponent for me. Obviously he has power, a good jab and punches. There are some good things about him, but I'm better. I'll go out and execute, he won't be able to stop me.""

LAVISAS WILLIAMS

"I'm naturally lefty ... I've sparred against ambidextrous boxers, so I like to say I'm ready for anything that comes my way.

"I'm excited to be debuting on national television. That's a pretty big deal for me so I need to put a great show. Especially for my fan base back home, they are all going to be watching.

"I take boxing seriously. I like to say I'm very dedicated. I take advantage of any opportunity I see. I trained at Mayweather Boxing Gym in Las Vegas for a bit last year. It was a good experience.

"My job is to frustrate him and trust me, I will. He will fight my fight. If he freezes again, I'm sure taking advantage of that, but I'm not counting on it.

"I'm going in knowing I'm the better boxer, but not overconfident. You can't overlook anybody, but I know I'm the one that's coming out victorious."

O'SHAQUIE FORSTER

"I don't know what happened in my last fight. I thought everything was OK but I just couldn't find my fight rhythm. I couldn't get off for some reason. But I am done thinking about that night.

"I'm definitely more focused this time around and in better shape. I need a win – and I'm fighting a guy who beat the guy that beat me, Samuel Teah. So, I have to be smart. He's a southpaw but I can deal with that.

"I've never worked so hard in camp. I left Texas to go to Washington D.C. to train for this. I'm 100 percent set to go.

"I need a challenge and this is it. I'm ready to step up and I'm ready for him."

JOHN MAGDA

"I'm excited and ready to go. Right now I'm looking at this as just another fight, but it's definitely a big, big deal. I'm hoping to win and put on an exciting show.

"I've been in the gym training since November but a series of unfortunate events took place and I didn't fight that month, or in December, or in January. So, I've been training for a while. I'm ready to fight.

'I'm in with a rough, tough guy. I can't let him bully or push me around; I just can't let him stand and throw.

"I need to box, move, do a lot of things I know I can do. I have to see how it plays. It's all just a matter of me doing what I am supposed to do, whether it is to box or slug. I'm ready for it."

CHRISTOPHER BROOKER

"I love being the underdog; I'm accustomed to it. That's why I work so hard, remain dedicated and will not ever quit.

"Magda throws a lot of punches, so you can't expect him to stay on the outside. But I run 15 miles a day, three days a week after sparring, to get into the kind of shape I need to be in and am for this fight.

"This is my first fight against a southpaw, but I've had southpaw sparring, including some recently with [former world champion] Andre Dirrell. I learned so much from him.

"I'm a Philly fighter through and through: I may not be a favorite to win, but I come to war and will never give up. That's a lot like the way I grew up when living in foster homes – and later, homeless, for some time. I just not give up, I keep on fighting.

"There's a lot on the line for me this Friday and I am ready to show what I can do.”

Christopher Brooker in Super Middleweight showdown from

Historic Boardwalk Hall Live on ShoBox: The New Generation

Atlantic City, NJ (Feb. 16, 2016) – Despite the fight being added just two weeks ago, many boxing insiders feel that the opening eight-round super middleweight between undefeated John Magda and Christopher Brooker this Friday, Feb. 19 live on SHOWTIME (10 p.m. ET/PT, delayed on the West Coast) could steal the show on ShoBox: The New Generation quadrupleheader that is loaded with talent.

Both Magda and Brooker are 24-years old.

Magda has built his reputation on his volume punching that has catapulted him to a perfect mark of 11-0 with seven knockouts. The former New Jersey Junior Olympic champion is coming off the best win, a unanimous decision over Dionisio Miranda.

Brooker has a record of 7-1 with five knockouts and is an aggressive puncher with good power. Brooker stepped on late notice and scored an upset when he defeated previously undefeated Leo Hall on Dec. 29.

Here's what the fighters said about their upcoming fights and foes:

ADAM LOPEZ

"Training is going well. I feel really strong. I am hyped, ready to go and feel really good about this fight.

"My training camp started at the beginning of January, and I was warming up a little before that. We still train at Castillo's gym in San Antonio, and we also train at the Robert Garcia Boxing Academy – Robert opened a chapter here in San Antonio.

"My sparring is usually with the same guys. I spar a couple of very good amateurs, and a really good professional, Oscar Cantu. He's probably the best sparring I can get here in Texas. I'm also going to spar Pablo Cruz, the guy I fought in my first Shobox appearance.

"Muñoz is my toughest opponent to date. He's a good fighter. He fought a world champion in Moises Flores. Muñoz has a traditional Mexican style. [But] he boxes a little [which is] weird because he's a Mexican fighter, and you don't usually see Mexican fighters not squaring. He can box and come in a little bit, but that's nothing I haven't seen before. As soon as we saw him, I liked the matchup and took the fight. I think his style plays to my favor.

"I'm really excited that SHOWTIME wants to have me as a headliner. I can't wait for this opportunity. This will be a 30-minute shootout, a real fan friendly fight."

MARIO MUÑOZ

"I'm very happy. I've been waiting a long time to fight in the United States and to fight on a big event, and here I am, headlining on national television in Atlantic City. If I win, I want to come back to the U.S. and fight again to show people what I've got.

"I'm a boxer that is smart. If I have to go toe-to-toe, I will, but I will box smart. I like to fight. I enjoy it. And I always find different ways to meet my opponent. I adapt.

"I'm training at Gimnasio Guzmán in Guadalajara and it is going well. I've been sparring with Santiago Estrada, Aron Bobadilla and Esnar Bobadilla.

RONALD ELLIS

"Friday, Feb. 19 can't come quick enough. I wish the fight was tomorrow. I am looking forward to fighting on TV; it's a huge opportunity for me to showcase my skills.

"My training camp for this fight has lasted about two months, and training is going very well. I'm training at Elite Heat Gym in Newark, and off-and-on at Boylston Rec Center. I've been sparring for a little while, especially with the snowstorm, but not with anybody in particular.

"I'm a boxer-puncher. I like to adapt in the ring. If a guy is coming straight forward, I like to box. But I like to fight. I get carried away and fight a lot, but this training camp I've been working on speed and keeping on my toes, so I'm going to stick and move. That's what I'm looking forward to. But you always go back to the old ways. If I see him hurt, I've got to get him out of there.

"Odom is a big puncher just like I am, so his record says. I have nothing neither good nor bad to say about him. He comes forward, he fights. He's got power. We'll just see what happens the day of the fight. It's going to be a beautiful fight, a great fight. I promise to put on a great show. The fans want to see action, I'll bring them action."

JERRY ODOM

"I'm looking forward to the fight and I'm happy to be back with this great opportunity on SHOWTIME. I will give a good showing to the fans.

"I've been training since November. This time, I'm training in Atlanta at the Decatur Boxing Club. I've trained here before, but I was training with Xavier Biggs then. This is my first fight with Kennie Johnson as my trainer. I never worked with him before, but I've got family in Atlanta and he's based here and I needed a new trainer. He'd seen me fight and he wanted to work with me, but I had another trainer then. I'm sparring with local guys here, just getting the sparring I can.

"My trainer knows everything about Ronald Ellis that we need to know, and he tells me what to prepare for. My coach knows more when it comes to dissecting a fighter, so I let him do it."

(Regarding his last fight, a TKO 2 loss to Samuel Clarkson on July 17, 2015, on ShoBox. The eight-rounder was contracted for 168 pounds, but Clarkson weighed in at 172 $\frac{1}{4}$ pounds. Odom took the fight anyway).

"Politically, I lost, but I didn't lose that last fight. I learnt. I learned to be smarter business-wise. That wasn't a good business move I made in fighting that guy. He weighed more than me. I let my heart play into it, I didn't back down from the fight. It was just a learning experience."

LAVISAS WILLIAMS

"I've been training for about six weeks at Future Boxing in Rochester. I've been sparring with Brandon Williams. He's an up-and-coming prospect. There are a lot of other local guys I spar with. Camp's been going very well and I'm feeling really sharp.

"This is a blessing to fight on ShoBox. I'm very excited and can't wait to show my talent to the world.

"I checked Foster out. I know he switches a lot and I saw that he just had a recent fight, so he's been active. He's fought the guy I beat, Samuel Teah. I beat Teah, and Foster lost to him. Still, I'm not taking Foster lightly. It won't be an easy fight. I know he's going to come and bring it and I'm coming to bring it, too.

"I'm a boxer-counter-puncher. I use the jab well, my left hand is strong. I like to think I'm a nice, smooth boxer. I know I've got the talent; I've just got to use it."

O'SHAQUIE FORSTER

"Training is going great. I've learned that I need to throw more punches and get in better shape and keep my hands going and not relax too much. I have to just let my hands go, come forward and put combinations together.

"I know my opponent is a slick boxer and has a good jab, but I'm confident in my skills as a boxer. I won't disappoint in this fight."

JOHN MAGDA

"I've been in the gym a long time preparing for a fight. I thought I might have one in December, January or February, so I'm in shape. I have a few more days to dial it in and sharpen up.

"I train at Ike & Randy's Gym in Paterson, N.J. I've been sparring all types of guys, Kendall Holt, whoever is in the gym. I was working a little bit with Monte Barrett, the heavyweight, Ronald Ellis and Pawel Wolak. I've been getting good sparring.

"I pressure my opponents. I have good range—good height, long arms. I like to keep people on the outside of my punches and pressure them from the outside and throw combinations where I can hit them and they can't hit me.

"Brooker fought on the card that I fought on last February in Allentown. That's the only time I've really seen him. He's a strong, stocky guy, throws punches and comes forward. A tough guy, not the most skilled fighter, but he works hard. No disrespect, but I'm a better fighter.

"I think this is a great opportunity to showcase myself and my ability. I am excited and I look forward to Feb. 19. I'm ready. I've got to make a name for myself. I think it's a good fight."

CHRISTOPHER BROOKER

"I'm ready to put on another show. I am looking forward to the television exposure. I've been training hard. This is the fun part, the hard work is done. I want to thank my team, King's Promotions and SHOWTIME for the opportunity to show what I can do.

"I train in Philadelphia. I'm in the gym every day. After my last fight, I took the weekend off and was back in the gym on Monday. Even if I'm working out light, I'm still in the gym working.

"Right now, I've been sparring with Anthony Miller. He's a southpaw, a little shorter than my opponent, but I think he's much faster, hits much harder and throws more combinations.

"My style surprises opponents; I go right in. My whole style is to keep my hands up, pressure the guy for 12 rounds, while hitting hard with every punch. My power punch stats were up last time, and they're going to be up again for this fight. I threw 87 punches per round the last time, so I'm trying to throw at least 100 this time. I'm trying to break records.

"I looked at the guy I'm fighting. I like fighting southpaws. I was actually smiling when they called and offered me this fight. I'm ready. I won my last fight and the same thing's going to happen this time. I just want to show off."

Barry Tompkins will call the ShoBox action from ringside with Steve Farhood and former world champion Raúl Márquez serving as expert analysts. The executive producer is Gordon Hall with Richard Gaughan producing and Rick Phillips directing.
