Split-T Management Fighters Get Three Wins on Friday

NEW YORK (September 13, 2022)– Three Split-T Management fighters got victories on Friday night.

In an entertaining scrap that produced a lot of contact, Joseph Adorno won a 10-round unanimous decision over Hugo Alberto Roldan to win the IBF Latino Junior Welterweight title at Ballys Atlantic City.

In round two, Adorno landed two counter lefts to the side of the head, for which Roldan's glove touched the canvas.

Roldan continued to press the action throughout the fight, but Adorno was on point with check hooks and body shots. Both guys had swelling under their eyes.

Adorno landed 105 of 339 punches; Roldan was 93 of 419.

Adorno, 139.5 lbs of Bethlehem, PA won by scores of 95-94 scores and is now 17-1-2. Roldan, 140 lbs of Argentina is 21-1-1.

"I feel like all the hard work I put in since I was a little kid is finally starting to pay off and coming all together," said Adorno, who took the fight with Roldan on four weeks' notice after Shinard Bunch withdrew from the main event. "I did lose a little love for boxing for a while. But I'm proud. He was an awkward fighter. I took the fight on short notice. He's a higher weight class than me. I'm a 135-pounder. All the hard work pays off. I went through a lot in the ring tonight, as any fighter does. I hurt my hand. I got hit with a headbutt that almost closed my eye. But I overcame it all. I got what it takes. I can hang in there with the top guys. Give me a couple more fights and I'll be ready for anybody."

"You learn a lot from a fight like this," Adorno said. "In boxing, you're going to face guys with different styles. Not everybody is going to be the same. Weird guys like Roldan make you look ugly. But you have to get through it, listen to your corner and adjust. That's what we did tonight. He came out with that aggressive style because he knew he had to throw a lot of punches to win the fight. I understand that. He's not a power-puncher so he had to throw punches to have a chance. I'm just glad we got the victory."

Adorno is promoted by GH3 Promotions.

In Montreal, Canada, Mary Spencer remained undefeated with a first round stoppage over former world title challenger Cynthia Lozano in a junior middleweight bout to capture the WBA International and WBC Silver Super Welterweight Titles.

Spencer is promoted by Eye of The Tiger Management.
