

World Ranked Super Bantamweight Daniel Roman to take on Ramiro Robles this Friday Night on GFL.TV

Long Island, NY/Ontario, CA (February 11, 2016) – This Friday night from the Doubletree Hotel in Ontario, California, world-ranked Super Bantamweight, Daniel Roman will take on Ramiro Robles in a 10-round bout that will headline a great night of boxing promoted by Thompson Boxing and streamed LIVE all over the world on GFL.TV.

The action begins at 10 PM ET / 7 PM PT and can be purchased for $14.99 by CLICKING HERE

“We are very happy to be working with Thompson Boxing on this event,” said David Klarman, CEO of GFL.TV. “Thompson Boxing has a great track record of developing world champions and their shows at the Doubletree in Ontario is one of the best series of shows in the country.”

WEIGHTS

Danny Roman, 122 vs. Ramiro Robles, 123.9

LaRon Mitchell, 247 vs. Juan Manuel Dominguez, 210

Fernando Fuentes, 126.6 vs. Jorge Ruiz, 127

Rudy Puga, 166 vs. Alejandro Osuna, 162.7

Miguel Trejo, 153.1 vs. Thomas Howard, 155.8

Jhordy Ramirez, 119.9 vs. Juan Carlos Diaz, 120

Roman of Garden Grove, California has a record of 17-2-1 with five knockouts and is currently ranked number-fourteen by the WBA.

The 25 year-old will be looking for his tenth consecutive victory. He will be looking to build on his stellar 2015, where he won all five of his starts and collected his first title in the process. He won the WBA-NABA Super Bantamweight title with a 10-round unanimous decision. In his last bout, Roman defended that title with a 10-round unanimous decision over Erik Ruiz (14-3) on September 25, 2015.

Robles of Guanajuato, Mexico has a respectable record of 12-4-1 with 7 knockouts.

Robles will not be able to win the NABA title due weighing in over the 122 pound limit.

Has quality wins on his ledger over the likes of Israel Lopez (4-0), Christian Cortez (5-1), Antonio Oguin (7-1-1), Carlos Hanson (2-0-1) and Octvaio Hernandz (13-4).

That record is deceiving as in his last three bouts, he has faced some of the best undefeated prospects in the lower weight divisions. he proved his toughness in those bouts as he went the distance with Joseph Diaz (10-0), Diego De La Hoya (9-0) and Oscar Negrete (9-0) on July 2, 2015.

Some of the best prospects on the west coast will see action such undefeated Heavyweight knockout artist LaRon Mitchell.

Mitchell of San Francisco has a record of 10-0 with none of his opponents hearing the final bell. The 2012 United States Bronze medal winner continues to show prodigious power while steadily upping his competition.

Looking to upset the apple cart on Friday will be Juan Manuel Dominguez Sosa of Tijuana, Mexico.

Sosa has a record of 6-2 with three knockouts and is on a two-fight winning streak.

In a 6-round Featherweight bout, Fernando Fuentes (6-6, 1 K0) of Hemet, CA will fight Jorge Ruiz (9-2, 3 K0's) of San Diego, CA.

In a 6-round Super Middleweight bout, Rudy Puga (6-0, 5 KO's) of Salinas, California will fight Alejandro Osuna (4-1, 2 KO's) of Jalisco, Mexico.

Miguel Trejo (3-0, 2 KO's) will take on veteran Tom Howard (8-6, 4 KO's) of Miami, Florida in a 4-round Super Welterweight bout.

In a 4-round Super Bantamweight bout, Jhordy Ramirez (1-0, 1 KO) will fight Juan Carlos Diaz (0-1) of Phoenix, AZ.