

Super Middleweight Marquis Moore remains undefeated with unanimous decision over Troy Artis in Queens, New York

New York, NY (May 19, 2018)-Super Middleweight prospect Marquis Moore remained undefeated with a six-round unanimous decision over Troy Artis at The Amazura Concert Hall in the Jamaica section of Queens, New York.

Moore used quick combinations and focused on the body to control the action to cruise home with the victory, and he remained perfect at 7-0.

Moore is managed by Split-T Management.

"I got some good work in and I take my hat off to Troy Artis because he came to fight. I'm already looking forward to get back in the gym and get ready for my next fight," said Moore.

Said Split-T Management CEO, David McWater, "When I first saw Marquis win the National Golden Gloves, I felt he would be a star in the pros because he has the style and power to become an attraction. He punches real hard , has a great work ethic, and he has a lot of natural ability you just can't teach. With the help of his trainers Davarryl Williamson and Terry Buterbaugh, I know he will become a World Champion!"

Marquis Moore takes on Troy Artis on Friday night in Jamaica, New York

New York, NY (May 17, 2018)—Friday night at the Amazura Concert Hall in the Jamaica section of Queens, New York, undefeated super middleweight Marquis Moore will battle Troy Artis in a six-round bout.

Moore of Colorado Springs, Colorado has a record of 6-0, with four knockouts, and will be looking to impress the New York fight crowd in his 2018 debut.

The 26 year-old Moore is coming off a 1st round stoppage over Zachary Bunce on October 19th in Atlanta, Georgia.

I can't wait for Friday night. I am all about Perfect Pains Silent Victory (PPSV)," said Moore. "What I mean is that I had to endure a lot pain during this camp but it was perfect because everything that I did, and had to go through will lead me to victory tomorrow."

"Marquis was one of the best prospects to come out of the 2016 class. I expect a powerful performance from him tomorrow in Jamaica, New York," said Split-T Management CEO, David McWater.

Moore weighed in at 164.8 lbs while Artis was 164.2 lbs at Thursday's weigh in.

Moore served in the United States Army for three years before being honorably discharged.

Moore, who is managed by Split-T Management, was one of the top amateur boxers in the country as he compiled a record of 140-15, highlighted by representing Team USA in many international events including winning the World National Golden Gloves as well as winning the gold medal in numerous national championships including the 2012 Armed Forces Championships, 2013 and 2014 National Golden Gloves, 2015 National PAL and US Olympic Trials Qualifiers.
